

Introducing...

The Great Summer Challenge

Unity for liberty is inviting all concerned New Zealanders' across the country to take up arms, that means pens, tables and petition forms.

When: The Month of January (Saturdays, if you can do more days even better)

Where: The length and breadth of New Zealand

Why: To achieve the 300,000 signatures for the Citizens Initiated Referendum.

What Referendum: The one against the new Anti Parenting Authority Law (often referred to as the Anti Smacking law) that has been forced upon our land.

How: By being active in your own communities. Ring up a local shop, ask to run a table outside their business for a few days. A good place is outside banks on Saturdays, they're closed and then we aren't a nuisance. You only need to ring the bank to attain written permission, then pass it on to the local council. So grab a partner, borrow a table, and print off a few pages of petition forms (available here <http://www.unityforliberty.net.nz/petition.html>), and you're all set to go.

Let us know when/where you're running the table, and we'll make the information available on our website for other volunteers to join you.
